

Bradley O. Babson '72. Brad participated in the first Williams-in-India Program. After obtaining an MPA degree from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton in 1974, Brad worked for the World Bank for 26 years. After retiring in 2000, he has consulted for the World Bank and United Nations and been involved in projects sponsored by various institutes, foundations and universities. He serves on the Advisory Council of the Korea Economic Institute of America, Executive Committee of the National Committee for North Korea, and chairs the DPRK Economic forum at the U.S.-Korea Institute at John Hopkins. Brad is a Director of the World Affairs Council of Maine and Vice President of the Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust.