

Laurie Thomsen, Williams '79. Laurie Thomsen is a former trustee of Williams and active participant in Williams life in many areas; she is presently a resident of Williamstown and a CDE host family. Professionally, Laurie was a venture investor, initially for many years at Harbourvest Partners in Boston, where she was a general partner. Laurie has founded several other investment firms since leaving Harbourvest and serves as a director on major companies including Travelers Companies insurance group and MFS Mutual Funds. Along with her service as a trustee of Williams, Laurie has been active in leadership and board roles at a number of influential not for profit organizations including New Profit, Inc., UAspire and Kickstart Int'l.