

Peter Nurnberg, Williams '09. Peter Nurnberg is a vice president at TPG Capital, one of the world's leading private equity/asset management companies. Peter is based in New York, where he focuses on private equity investments in financial services businesses. Prior to joining TPG, Peter worked at Goldman Sachs in its investment banking division. Peter received a summa from Williams in 2009, winning several awards in economics and mathematics, as well as contributing to the College in numerous important ways. While at Williams, Peter took three classes at the CDE. He is also a graduate of the Graduate School of Business at Stanford where he was an Arjay Miller Scholar and where, as at Williams, he won awards for superior performance and contributions.