

Shelley Leibowitz, Williams '82. Shelley Leibowitz has both governmental and private sector experience. A Williams graduate in 1982, Shelley worked in the finance industry and held Chief Information Officer positions at various companies including Morgan Stanley, Greenwich Capital Markets and Barclays Capital. In 2009 she was appointed the World Bank's first group wide Chief Information Officer where she was responsible for technology services and capabilities as well as cybersecurity programs. Having returned to the NY/CT area from Washington, Shelley serves as a member of the Board of Directors of E*Trade Financial Corporation, and advises other companies in the area of IT strategy and oversight as well as cybersecurity governance. She is member of the Council on Foreign Relations and active in leadership roles as a member of various not-for-profit organizations.